

QUICK TRIP.

Sch. Sarah E. Lee in This Morning with 300 Barrels.

Sailed From Here Only Last Monday Morning.

For quick trips, Capt. Frank Hall in sch. Sarah E. Lee rather carries off the palm just at the present. He sailed from here Monday, went on Cashes, grabbed up a couple big schools of mackerel and arrived here this morning at 9.30 o'clock with 300 barrels of salt ones. That's what you call moving lively. Capt. Hall is right up in the front rank of the leaders this season.

Sch. Lewis H. Giles, Capt. G. Melvin McClain, arrived Tuesday afternoon after only a week's absence with a fine fare, 305 barrels of salt mackerel, all taken off here. Capt. McClain has started in on his old-time hustling line.

There are four arrivals at Boston to-day with mackerel. Sch. Nellie Dixon has 100 bbls. fresh and 100 bbls. salt, taken in Boston Bay and sch. A. C. Newhall which sailed from here Sunday, is there from Boon Island with 90 bbls. salt and 60 bbls. fresh.

Capt. Joachim Murray of sch. Alvarado reports speaking sch. American on Bacaleu Bank recently.

Sch. Margaret has completed the discharge of her Bank cod fare and will immediately fit for seining.

The fare of sch. John S. Presson, all rimmed, sold to Hall & Co. at $11 per bbl.

The fare of sch. Reporter, all plain, sold to George Perkins & Son at $10 per bbl.

The city of Gloucester had the unusual experience on Wednesday of not receiving a single fare of mackerel. The dealers must have thought the fish had gone astray.—New York Fishing Gazette.

Good Stock.

Sch. Dauntless, Capt. Charles Young, stocked $2335.14 as the result of her recent halibut trip, the crew sharing $57.

Sch. Lucinda I. Lowell, Capt. Antone Courant, stocked $2400 as the result of her recent shack trip, the crew sharing $73.

Maiden Trip.

The new sch. A. M. Nicholson of Bucksport, sailed from here to-day on her maiden trip, engaging in the seining fishery under command of Capt. Daniel Cogill. The new craft is a staunch vessel, built on fine lines and presented a handsome sight as she sailed out of the harbor. She is owned by Capt. Thomas Nicholson of Bucksport, who is well and favorably known to the fishing interest here, and will be a fine addition to his already large fleet. May she have the best of luck.

Families Suffering.

Capt. Samuel Colson of sch. Georgie Campbell reports going to St. Lawrence, N. F., to secure bait, and finding the natives in a destitute condition. Food was scarce and many families were suffering. Capt. Colson supplied several destitute families with provisions, coal and wood. The conditions are the results of poor fisheries among those who follow the business for a livelihood.

ANOTHER BIG FARE.

Sch. Hattie M. Graham at Portland with 650 Barrels Mackerel.

SEVERAL FARES AT THIS PORT.

Netters Have Not Been Doing Much Off Here Lately.

A special to the TIMES from Portland this morning, gives the news of the arrival at that port to-day of one of the very largest fares of mackerel of the season, sch. Hattie M. Graham of this port, Capt. John S. Seavey, shooting in with a regular load, 300 barrels fresh mackerel and 350 barrels salt mackerel. The fish were taken on the Maine coast, most of them Tuesday and Wednesday.

This dandy fare means a big stock for Capt. Seavey and a fine share for his crew. On his last trip he stocked just an even $5000, so it is plainly seen that he is hustling. Capt. Seavey has done finely this season, and is one of those capable seining skippers who are always found well to the front at the end of the season.

There are five seining arrivals from the Maine coast this morning with fares ranging from $5 to 325 barrels. The skippers all report that the fish seem to be striking off shore to the southward, but that there had been quite a body of fish there.

Capt. Charles H. Harty of sch. Marguerite Haskins is taking a stay ashore and Capt. Joseph Cash is in command of the vessel.

Mackerel were schooling off Eastern Point Wednesday.

Sch. Dauntless is fitting for seining, under command of Capt. Charles Young.

Sch. Oliver Wendell Holmes, Capt. Roy Kimball, stocked $3029 as the result of her recent seining trip, the crew sharing $68.88.

The netting fleet has not done much off here since Monday night. The boats came in this morning with but few fish, 105 being high line and from that down to 20 fish.
